MEMORANDUM FOR: Chairman, USIB

SUBJECT: Chairmanship of the Security Committee and JAEIC

1. At the 9 October meeting of USIB, you agreed to General Tighe's suggestion that the Board Principals have a few days to consider possible alternative nominations to Mr. Marvin Gentile as Chairman of the Security Committee. Two have been received; Mr. Robert E. Tharp, ERDA, and Mr. Donald Paschal, Navy (see attached bios).

2. We also need to appoint a new Chairman for JAEIC to replace [redacted]. The CIA nominee, [redacted] (bio attached) has been Acting Chairman since [redacted] move to the IG Staff. We have been in contact with the main players whom we thought might have qualified candidates outside CIA, i.e., ERDA and DIA. Ed Giller's letter and bio on his nominee, Mr. Ray Chapman, is attached. DIA does not have a nominee at this time, but we have been advised informally that DIA may recommend rotation of the JAEIC chairmanship in a manner similar to the recent agreement on the Weapon and Space Systems Intelligence Committee (WSSIC). On 15 October Bruce Lowe notified all the other USIB member agencies that nominations for JAEIC would be considered at an early Board meeting.

3. We recommend that you name Gentile to head the Security Committee [redacted] to chair JAEIC. (The nominees of ERDA and Navy for the Security job are quite junior.)

4. There are several alternatives for handling this.

(a) You can approve Gentile [redacted] now and USIB can be advised by note from the Executive Secretary. 25X1

(b) We can circulate to USIB members biographic detail concerning all nominees and reserve your decision pending discussion at the next USIB meeting.

(c) You can decide on Gentile now (we have been planning his EOD on 3 November, the likely date of the next USIB meeting) and hold a final decision on JAEIC pending USIB discussion. Meanwhile, we would disseminate biographic detail on the two JAEIC nominees.

5. We think alternative (c) above the best arrangement and recommend your approval.
